Cover letter subject line: Survival Guide For Citizens during a Revolution + Poetic Justice

Fellow Freedomist,

This is a combination of two really thought provoking documents about being under Military Rule [NDAA] now in the Not-united States.

The first document is uniquely informative and is titled "Survival Guide for Citizens in a Revolution 2012" recently published by "Anonymous" or someone that names themselves that.

The second one is called:

" I am a snobbish creature spanked. "

The letters of

" President Barack Hussein Obama. "

The second one makes it clear there are only two possible outcomes with regards to this particular dictator; one outcome is impeachment, the other is far worse, a major disaster.

After looking over this powerful new document, forward this to at least 10 more persons. One person alone cannot email billions of others to help them maximally protect and safeguard themselves from military rule and a dictator.

Some things should be emailed to everyone by everyone else. This message and the attached SurvivalGuideForCitizens.pdf should be forwarded to everyone with an email address, and discussed. and invoke widespread planning to repel the force of government; frightening government staged phony or real biological attacks or not.

It is almost as if hundreds of Hitlers are emerging over the entire world, placing themselves in line for "world government" powers. And the criminally behind-the-scenes big banking history corrupters all want a big piece of the "New World Order". However we are educated adults, we barely need to be governed, and We The People should be the real governing class of our world. Therefore the next "system" shouldn't even be called a government. It should be called a "Servicement" or something that effect that sounds more helpful to We The People; as we all now wake-up and refuse to be governed by a long established, tightly interlocked, and highly corrupt system of generational insiders. So a couple of thousand of the rich and powerful are dominating over 7 billion others; and they are still winning. They are winning because most good people are afraid to do something proactive. However, this shocking yet also humorous document, Survival Guide for Citizens in a Revolution, makes it easier to communicate with others, even chuckle together.

To fix this, all we have to do, in essence, is all get on the same page together, and if so, all the criminals now infesting the governments of the world will lose their ambitions and dangerous degrees of power; yet only together with grace upon us from Providence.

The best single 8x11 page for this is the Universal Statement of Freedom, which is included right after the Declaration of Independence, on page 9 of the 38 page Survival Guide. It is also printed on the attached graphic.

For us that are not criminals, all we all want is something simple: not to be aggravated by a tyrannical system, maximum personal freedom, and a happier world. As long as somebody is not significantly and unfairly hurting another person, there is no violation, no regulation broken, or crime at all - no matter them. We pretty much all agree on that simple notion.

Please, if you do little else, at least forward this PDF Survival Guide for Citizens booklet to everyone you can, for their review, without delay. The military is already planning on how to ambush and control the American people, especially those upholding constitutional law.

In Freedom and Truth,
MostEveryone

Motto of everything expressed in this booklet:

Can the middle-class of the United States, and the middle-class everywhere around the globe, unite (get on the same page) in some way to keep the filthy-rich and elite class, who own and manage the mass media, under control?

Or will a fascist, militaristic and bloody, global empire continue to take root and emerge (managed by a class of shadowy international bankers who create and issue credit to the whole world)? [the current global, private and corrupt system of currency, taxation, & control]

Will the middle-class continue to fund and allow their own enslavement? Or will a critical mass of righteous people who believe in real freedom form to counter the current ever tightening system of, often brutal, control?

Freedom, long-term happiness, -or- political deception & fascism for the benefit of the rich?

The Declaration of Independence

IN CONGRESS, July 4, 1776.

The unanimous Declaration of the thirteen united States of America

When in the Course of human events, it becomes necessary for one people to dissolve the political bands which have connected them with another, and to assume among the powers of the earth, the separate and equal station to which the Laws of Nature and of Nature's God entitle them, a decent respect to the opinions of mankind requires that they should declare the causes which impel them to the separation.

We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness.--That to secure these rights, Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed, --That whenever any Form of Government becomes destructive of these ends, it is the Right of the People to alter or to abolish it, and to institute new Government, laying its foundation on such principles and organizing its powers in such form, as to them shall seem most likely to effect their Safety and Happiness. Prudence, indeed, will dictate that Governments long established should not be changed for light and transient causes; and accordingly all experience hath shewn, that mankind are more disposed to suffer, while evils are sufferable, than to right themselves by abolishing the forms to which they are accustomed. But when a long train of abuses and usurpations, pursuing invariably the same Object evinces a design to reduce them under absolute Despotism, it is their right, it is their duty, to throw off such Government, and to provide new Guards for their future security.--Such has been the patient sufferance of these Colonies; and such is now the necessity which constrains them to alter their former Systems of Government. The history of the present King of Great Britain is a history of repeated injuries and usurpations, all having in direct object the establishment of an absolute Tyranny over these States. To prove this, let Facts be submitted to a candid world.

He has refused his Assent to Laws, the most wholesome and necessary for the public good.

He has forbidden his Governors to pass Laws of immediate and pressing importance, unless suspended in their operation till his Assent should be obtained; and when so suspended, he has utterly neglected to attend to them.

He has refused to pass other Laws for the accommodation of large districts of people, unless those people would relinquish the right of Representation in the Legislature, a right inestimable to them and formidable to tyrants only.

He has called together legislative bodies at places unusual, uncomfortable, and distant from the depository of their public Records, for the sole purpose of fatiguing them into compliance with his measures.

He has dissolved Representative Houses repeatedly, for opposing with manly firmness his invasions on the rights of the people.

He has refused for a long time, after such dissolutions, to cause others to be elected; whereby the Legislative powers, incapable of Annihilation, have returned to the People at large for their exercise; the State remaining in the mean time exposed to all the dangers of invasion from without, and convulsions within.

He has endeavoured to prevent the population of these States; for that purpose obstructing the Laws for Naturalization of Foreigners; refusing to pass others to encourage their migrations hither, and raising the conditions of new Appropriations of Lands.

He has obstructed the Administration of Justice, by refusing his Assent to Laws for establishing Judiciary powers.

He has made Judges dependent on his Will alone, for the tenure of their offices, and the amount and payment of their salaries.

He has erected a multitude of New Offices, and sent hither swarms of Officers to harrass our people, and eat out their substance.

He has kept among us, in times of peace, Standing Armies without the Consent of our legislatures.

He has affected to render the Military independent of and superior to the Civil power.

He has combined with others to subject us to a jurisdiction foreign to our constitution, and unacknowledged by our laws; giving his Assent to their Acts of pretended Legislation:

For Quartering large bodies of armed troops among us:

For protecting them, by a mock Trial, from punishment for any Murders which they should commit on the Inhabitants of these States:

For cutting off our Trade with all parts of the world:

For imposing Taxes on us without our Consent:

For depriving us in many cases, of the benefits of Trial by Jury:

For transporting us beyond Seas to be tried for pretended offences

For abolishing the free System of English Laws in a neighbouring Province, establishing therein an Arbitrary government, and enlarging its Boundaries so as to render it at once an example and fit instrument for introducing the same absolute rule into these Colonies:

For taking away our Charters, abolishing our most valuable Laws, and altering fundamentally the Forms of our Governments:

For suspending our own Legislatures, and declaring themselves invested with power to legislate for us in all cases whatsoever.

He has abdicated Government here, by declaring us out of his Protection and waging War against us.

He has plundered our seas, ravaged our Coasts, burnt our towns, and destroyed the lives of our people.

He is at this time transporting large Armies of foreign Mercenaries to compleat the works of death, desolation and tyranny, already begun with circumstances of Cruelty & perfidy scarcely paralleled in the most barbarous ages, and totally unworthy the Head of a civilized nation.

He has constrained our fellow Citizens taken Captive on the high Seas to bear Arms against their Country, to become the executioners of their friends and Brethren, or to fall themselves by their Hands.

He has excited domestic insurrections amongst us, and has endeavoured to bring on the inhabitants of our frontiers, the merciless Indian Savages, whose known rule of warfare, is an undistinguished destruction of all ages, sexes and conditions.

In every stage of these Oppressions We have Petitioned for Redress in the most humble terms: Our repeated Petitions have been answered only by repeated injury. A Prince whose character is thus marked by every act which may define a Tyrant, is unfit to be the ruler of a free people.

Nor have We been wanting in attentions to our Brittish brethren. We have warned them from time to time of attempts by their legislature to extend an unwarrantable jurisdiction over us. We have reminded them of the circumstances of our emigration and settlement here. We have appealed to their native justice and magnanimity, and we have conjured them by the ties of our common kindred to disavow these usurpations, which, would inevitably interrupt our connections and correspondence. They too have been deaf to the voice of justice and of consanguinity. We must, therefore, acquiesce in the necessity, which denounces our Separation, and hold them, as we hold the rest of mankind, Enemies in War, in Peace Friends.

We, therefore, the Representatives of the united States of America, in General Congress, Assembled, appealing to the Supreme Judge of the world for the rectitude of our intentions, do, in the Name, and by Authority of the good People of these Colonies, solemnly publish and declare, That these United Colonies are, and of Right ought to be Free and Independent States; that they are Absolved from all Allegiance to the British Crown, and that all political connection between them and the State of Great Britain, is and ought to be totally dissolved; and that as Free and Independent States, they have full Power to levy War, conclude Peace, contract Alliances, establish Commerce, and to do all other Acts and Things which Independent States may of right do. And for the support of this Declaration, with a firm reliance on the protection of divine Providence, we mutually pledge to each other our Lives, our Fortunes and our sacred Honor.

ANONYMOUS : SURVIVAL GUIDE FOR CITIZENS IN A REVOLUTION

This Guide is for civilians who feel they are about to be caught up in a violent uprising or revolution to overthrow the oppressive government of their country. Although a revolution in favor of the people is a joyful thing when seen from the outside, it can be a bloody mess for those inside it.

This guide will give you some basic ideas and tips for how you and your friends/neighbors/family can stay safe in the violent turmoil around you. It is not a ready-made recipe, but it contains general survival tactics and strategies.

MOST OF ALL WE SUGGEST:

- Don't panic, stay cool headed.
- Take a break and rest if your body needs to relax, lack of sleep is a major weakening factor.
- Avoid consuming mind altering substances like alcohol and drugs. They will cloud your judgement and ability to think and act rationally. You are also arming the regime with propaganda that the crowd is made up of a bunch of intoxicated rioters. Don't allow your movement to be portrayed in an unfavourable light.

NOTICING FIRST SIGNS

Revolutions don't just happen instantly over night, they develop over long periods of struggle. So keep your eyes and ears open for signs of a coming uprising, such as:

- Civil unrest prior to riots in the major cities.
- Politicians and media blatantly lying about the most obvious developments.
- Censorship of social networks such as Twitter or Facebook. This may not be entirely obvious at first but when the sites are blocked completely the warnings are clear (with excuses like child pornography).
- Censorship of old media such as newspapers and television (non-regime critical press).
- Arrests of political opposition leaders (In Tunisia the leaders of the Pirate Party were rounded up and imprisoned without charge. The prison was subsequently burnt down with many people dying inside).
- In times of crisis many rumours will spread around and fear mongering is rampant. Be calm, think before you act, act rashly.
- The #Hashtag of your country, or name of your political leader is trending worldwide on Twitter.
- Friends and family members living abroad may try to contact you to check if you are alright.

MAKE PREPARATIONS

Buy food, water and medical supplies. Stores will be closed and you may not get any supplies when the riots reach your town. A 20 kg bag of rice can keep a person alive for 6 months. If there is no rice available, other dry grains, potatoes, noodles, dried pasta or lentils, as well as lots of canned food will also suffice.

You will also need flour and salt. Locate a secure water supply - do not rely on tap water to be always available, as damage to pipes may cut you off. Buy water purification tablets because you may not always be able to boil the water. Once you have a supply of food and water you will need a dry, cool, safe place to store it away from vermin and thieves.

To make sure everyone knows how to respond in the event of struggles in your neighborhood, you will want to convene a family or neighborhood gathering or meeting to discuss this matter.

Topics of discussion should include:

Who - What - Where - Why - When :

- Nominating leaders and contact people.
- Compile a census of the members of your group, and ensure everyone gets to know each other (or at least recognize each other).

- What to do about power and water outages.
- How to deal with serious sicknesses and injuries.
- How to turn off water, gas and electricity at main switches.
- What to do if you must evacuate.
- Where to meet if you get separated.
- How to make a fire for cooking and warmth.
- A water supply is essential.
- If handicapped, aged or young children are present, decide what assistance is needed and who will be taking care of them.
- What to do in the event of a flood, fire, attack, storms, civil upheaval.
- Compile a list of those needing special medical attention along with all pertinent information regarding their condition, and any medications they require.
- Agree on what to do and how to distribute food and water if you need or decide to share supplies.
- How to turn off the water, gas and electricity at main switches.
- What to do if you all have to evacuate.
- Where to meet if you get separated.

IN ADDITION, YOU SHOULD:

- Post and hand out emergency telephone numbers and keep by the telephone.
NOTE: In a full scale revolution the police will not help you or may even be your enemy depending on the situation) You will also need other emergency numbers i.e.: ambulance, fire, etc. (may not be available or may be blocked by other callers).
- Compile a written list of contact addresses of relatives for the people you are with.
- Teach children how and when to call for help.
- Get a Red Cross first aid kit.
- Internet access could be your only way of finding out what is happening in your country as state TV may be under tight control so do try to get online. Projects like: http://cryptoanarchy.org/wiki/Dialup_For_Egypt and Tor may be able to help you. More resources here: <http://rev11.info/>
- Get a camera to document things, but be covert because journalists are prone to be attacked. If you can, get a friend to watch your back as operating a video/still camera can be very distracting. Use a small camera so you can easily conceal or disguise it as something else e.g. a packet or small box of something, a book, etc.

FOOD & WATER

Getting your food supply ready.

Have at least a four week (1 month) sufficient supply of non-perishable food on hand. Focus on high-nutritional foods that require no refrigeration, preparation or cooking and little or no water.

YOUR FOOD SUPPLY MIGHT INCLUDE:

- Ready-to-eat canned meats, beans, fruits, or vegetables
- Canned juices, condensed or evaporated milk (avoid fresh milk), honey, canned soups or vegetables.
- High energy foods, including peanut butter, jelly, crackers, granola bars, trail mix, dried rolled oats, wheat, barley and other grains, dried fruit, nuts (ensure nobody is allergic, however)
- Vitamins and mineral (like salt or magnesium) supplements if available

- Special foods for infants, diabetics, the elderly or people on special diets
- Comfort/stress foods, including: cookies, hard candy, instant coffee, tea, boiled sweets, chocolate and other non-perishable confectionery

OTHER ESSENTIALS INCLUDE:

- Extra supplies of any essential medications (like painkillers, antibiotics, disinfectants and some first aid kits) required as pharmacies and doctor's offices may no longer be open or otherwise unavailable.
- Gasoline for your cars and other vehicles.
- Cash money, as banks will probably close, and ATMs and EFTPOS may not be available.
- Some things (books, battery, firewood etc.) that you can trade with others.
- A good torch (or several torches - one for each person is good) and a good supply of batteries for each. Torches that can be tied to a belt etc. are a good idea to ensure nobody loses theirs.
- If you have children you need toys, books, simple board games, etc. to keep them occupied.
- We recommend against alcohol and drug consumption as these will impair your ability to deal with such an emotionally stressful situation.

GETTING SPECIAL ASSISTANCE

Find out about any special assistance that may be available in your community. Create a network of neighbors, relatives, friends and co-workers to aid you in an emergency. Discuss with them your needs and make sure they know how to operate any necessary equipment.

If you live in an apartment building, ask the management to clearly mark accessible exits and to make arrangements to help you evacuate the building. Identify people with special skills such as doctors, nurses, bus drivers, etc.

CREATE A "TAKE BOX"

The take box should have everything you need to reconstruct your life in the event you evacuate and everything is lost. Passports; birth, wedding, adoption, divorce, and armed service separation certificates; copies of insurance policies; mortgage information; house and car title; large purchase receipts. You get the idea. If you have a scanner, save yourself space and heartbreak by scanning family albums and images of other keepsakes, burn those to CD and keep a copy in your take box, or make a copy of all your pictures, videos, music and documents on a external hard drive that you can keep in your take box. But remember that CDs can malfunction. Make sure you take along the original documents - if possible, make copies of them and host them online using Photobucket or Imageshack.

FIRST AID KIT

Learn how to use it, and make sure it is well stocked. Get a first aid manual and a kit that will allow you to stop bleeding, disinfect and treat cuts and wounds large and small. In Vietnam soldiers often used tampons to plug bullet hole wounds for example. If there is any on hand, most stronger spirits (vodka, etc.) can be used to clean wounds, but CLEAN running water will do if there is nothing else. Scarves and bandanas can be used as bandages, as can bedsheets.

In general, use common sense and learn what to do for various injuries. Take stock of other common items which may have novel uses.

GENERAL STRATEGIES

- Band together into small squads of known friends. That way you recognize infiltrators, like fake civilians, as was seen at the G20 summit in Canada. (Watch for pieces of police uniforms like police shoes usually black boots, they tend to stay in little violent groups.)
- Wear white/green head bands so military personnel can recognize you - Be visible.
- Do not let children go outdoors unless you are certain that it is safe and do not let them out of your sight. A bandana as a head band is a handy article because it is multi-purpose.
- Stay with any elderly or disabled people or children who are out in the street, as they may be lost or disoriented and may need assistance.
- Contact and join forces with groups in other neighborhoods. Each neighborhood should act as an independent squad, but should always be ready to assist others in the area.
- Always be on guard with as many people as possible. Ask trustworthy members of the military to help you reinforce your groups by adding soldiers to each of them or staying in contact with one of your group members designated for that purpose.
- Collaborative mapping: Use paper (to draw a map) or a city map or street directory, and mark dangerous/safe places on it as well as places where assistance is available, water taps, etc. To share this information use Google Earth (if you are able to connect to the Internet). Do not use this for sensitive information that should be detained from government forces, as anyone can view the map.
- If there is mobile phone service, designate one person as a contact for anyone who is lost or who has become separated from the group. Agree on places to meet up if the group is separated that are safe, but visible (e.g. a parking lot or an easily-recognised friend's house).
- DO NOT USE MOBILE PHONES TO PLAN OPERATIONS IF THE GOVERNMENT AND SECURITY FORCES ARE YOUR ENEMIES. They will be tracked and monitored.

ADDITIONAL SECURITY TIPS

- Have a plan. A meeting place and some sort of escape route should be prepared in case of emergency. Have local maps and a compass on hand. Satellite dishes are faced to the Equator.
- Try and remain calm and focused. Remember to eat, drink and sleep when you need to. Your body will give you hints, do not fight against these.
- Learn to recognise signs of low blood sugar, exhaustion and dehydration in yourself and others, as well as signs of heatstroke. Also learn to recognise symptoms of asthma attacks and other similar issues, and what to do about them.
- Assist the injured in moving wherever possible. Even a short walk can turn a minor sprain into a major one. Learn how to improvise stretchers or move people safely if they are too injured to walk with assistance.

- Avoid making journeys by car unless you are a VERY confident and skilled driver and know your vehicle well and are able to maintain it. The last thing you need is a flat tire in the middle of a riot.
- If you must travel on foot, travel light - carry only what you absolutely require for the journey. Carrying large backpacks or bags can make you stand out, and carrying extra weight may make it more difficult to move quickly if you need to get away.
- If you are in or traveling through an area you're not familiar with, make good use of a road map or street directory, or ask locals (carefully) for directions.

- Stay away from gunfire and sounds of violence rather than seeking to investigate. If you must investigate, do it discreetly; ask around for information rather than trying to acquire it yourself.
- Designated non verbal signals and codes need to be known to all members of the group - chalked signs on walls can be helpful, or whistles, hand and arm signals, etc
- Help those you can but do not endanger yourself or your group by doing so.
- Find and collect fire extinguishers and fire blankets. Make sure everyone knows where they are kept and how to use them. Do not steal fire fighting equipment if it is in a populated location.
- Build a barricade and maintain watch at all points of entrance to the area in which you are staying. Form compounds with individuals you trust and create a barrier of flat visible ground.
- Make a barricade of cars on neighbouring streets. Always have a vehicle ready in case someone needs medical attention. Refrigerators, washing machines, and other heavy equipment are also useful components of such barriers.
- Do not trust barricades as safe protection against gun fire. Fill bags with sand or dig trenches for some additional protection but do not trust your life to such things.
- If you must fight, it is best to do so inside buildings, where guns have less advantage - they can't just move far away and keep shooting.
- DO NOT TRY TO FIGHT MEN WHO HAVE GUNS OR ANY WEAPONS. REMAIN CALM AND REFRAIN FROM SUDDEN MOVEMENTS IN THE PRESENCE OF ANY ARMED ADVERSARIES WHO ARE NOT A DEFINITE THREAT.

- Your area is more likely to be avoided by hostile groups if they perceive the possibility of organized and substantial resistance.
- When in doubt, retreat to a safer location (the high ground where possible). Ensure that those you trust all agree on a fall back location in case of a chaotic situation.
- Don't be an hero. Dying in the frantic attempt to save two, kills three. Try to stay level-headed and analyze situations before you act.
- Make noise to alert other neighbors to threats. Ensure that all are aware of what such noises indicate. People not used to the sound may mistake fireworks for gunfire. Make a distinctive sound: use a whistle, vuvuzella, kazoo or cowbell, you can even learn to whistle yourself.

Any loud instrument can also be a good solution.

- Protection begins with protecting yourself.
 - Ensure that you have adequate head protection (even a saucepan is something, but a hardhat or bicycle/motorcycle helmet is best) but the minimum is a baseball cap or other hat.
 - Safety goggles for the eyes if available, or sunglasses if it's all you can find.
 - A kerchief for the nose and mouth.
 - Good solid shoes that are comfortable for walking long distances. Steelcaps/Steel Toe/Steel Shank boots, will protect your feet from broken glass, nails, and even possibly an electrocution (because of the rubber sole), they are however very dangerous in cold weather as steel toes will draw in the cold air, not insulate as well, and possibly lead to frostbite and/or lost toes. If borrowing shoes, ensure that they are the right size as blisters can get infected very quickly and will hinder you. If you are prone to blisters, apply paper tape (tape used to hold dressings in place; can be found at most pharmacies) or band-aids to areas where you normally get blisters before you leave.

- Socks, make sure you have a couple of pairs of socks. If your feet get wet they become very prone to blisters and sores. To prevent this from happening, change your socks if your feet are wet.
- Stay in a place where you can see the surrounding area and be seen by your squad.
- Never separate from the group alone - use the buddy system.
- For enhanced protection, groups within local communities should stay together.
- Inform others what you are doing and share information with them - organize and maintain contact with other neighborhoods.
- Write down license plate numbers and other vehicle info (color, make, model, etc.) in case of suspicious activity. The number of occupants, general ages, genders, etc., are useful as well. Make photographs/videos of hostile people with your mobile phone discreetly.
- Stay cool and avoid all arguments and fights, you are on a peaceful defensive course of action, not an offensive one.
- Organise a shift system to keep watch around the compound.
- Be visible: wear a white/green head band so military can distinguish you.
- Never wear military camouflage - you don't want to be mistaken as a mercenary.

- Make sure your mobile phone's battery is fully charged and operating. Keep some coins on-hand or try to acquire a phone card (if these are available in your country), and note locations of public phones and their availability. If you can, get a satellite cell phone.

- Trade contact numbers with other groups like yours so that you may support each other with information and protection. Remember: information is the most fundamentally important protection!
- Always have emergency phone numbers on hand. Everyone must know what to do in case of problems and where to go (nearest hospital, home of a relative, etc).
- Learn how to use a dial-up modem to get to the internet and how to use international dial-up services. http://cryptoanarchy.org/wiki/Dialup_For_Egypt
- If you see atrocities try to record and report them to the international media (but only after safely informing neighbors for their protection). Date, time, place, who the parties involved were, what it was about and what happened. If you have web access, you may leave reports on any Anonymous-run message board. Have someone in your neighborhood who is internet savvy be in charge of further distribution, but only when safety has been regained. If it is safe, contact other witnesses to verify information.

- The source from which you obtained this document will have further documents for you soon; these will provide technical instructions on advancing the revolution once initial security is established. Other forms of aid will be sent in the coming weeks. In the meantime, build your neighborhood alliances and communications networks. Please share with as many other people as you can. Maintain a network for this process but do so in a way that does not endanger anyone in the case of infiltration by government forces. Don't write down names, or even Internet handles, email addresses, etc. - anything that can be used to identify a person.
- Post look out guards when others are sleeping. Work in short shifts (3-4h), but ensure everyone has adequate sleep - a sleepy guard isn't watchful, and sleepy people make mistakes easily. Older people and children will need much more sleep - remember to account for this.

HOW TO DEAL WITH EXCEPTIONAL SITUATIONS

RAPE

The best protection against rape is not to get in a situation where it could happen

- Never go out alone (day or night)
- Try to appear undesirable and unattractive, but do not look helpless, or unable to escape.
- Wear clothes that cover most of your skin, clothing that is hard to remove for attackers, but do not hinder you while running fast, or climbing a fence.
- Wear: jeans, belt, turtleneck etc.
- Do not wear: Skirts
- Wear decent shoes that you can run in, like sneakers or light boots
- Never leave public places, and don't let people isolate you
- Don't trust new friends

- NEVER provoke! What might be okay in a stable society will get you in deep trouble in times when there is no backed law enforcement.
- Wear a wedding ring or wedding band, even if not married.

IF YOU CANNOT AVOID IT

- Prevent being transported to a secondary site, use passive resistance, try to stay put
- Yell "FIRE", not "help", as more people will react to it.
- Use your head and assess the situation, don't waste your energy.
- If you're pinned wait for an opportunity to break out
- If you fight aim for the eyes, throat or genitals, dislocate/break fingers.

LOOTING AND ROBBERY

Generally, if they don't want to take your life, body parts or rape you (especially if they are armed) the best way out is to give the robbers what they want.

That reduces the time you are exposed to guns and knives, and there is less time in which you could get killed, injured or have the situation escalate.

The best way to avoid being robbed or your house looted is not to raise any desires to do so:

- Don't brag about your food reserves, your money or anything you might have that others value.
- Don't trust new people
- Hide valuable things in different places, so if someone threatens you, you can give them what they want and still have secure reserves.

HOW TO DEAL WITH VIOLENT RIOTS

BE PREPARED.

If you know an area is ripe for a riot but you can't avoid traveling there, take these simple precautions to protect yourself. Wear clothes that minimize the amount of exposed skin, long pants and long-sleeve shirts and good walking shoes when going out, and think about your possible escape routes and safe havens before anything actually happens. Carry small cash with you in case you need to quickly arrange transportation, pay off looters, or bribe the police at a checkpoint. Do not conceal all the cash in one place. Place portions around the body. In shoes, underpants, pinned to inside lining etc. If you're traveling abroad, register with your country's consulate and carry your passport and/or visa with you at all times.

REMAIN CALM.

Riots bring about intense emotions, and if you want to survive one you'd better keep yours in check. Your adrenaline and survival instincts will kick in, but try to think rationally, calmly and pursue safety methodically.

DON'T TAKE SIDES.

If you're caught up in a riot, don't take sides. Try to look as inconspicuous as possible, and slowly and carefully move to the outside of the mob. Stay close to walls or other protective barriers if possible.

AVOID BEING HIT BY RIOT CONTROL CHEMICALS.

Police may deploy riot control agents (tear gas, for example) to disperse a crowd. These chemicals can cause severe pain, respiratory distress, and blindness. Try to stay away from the front lines of a riot, and learn to recognize the signs that a riot control agent has been used and how to handle exposure.

MOVE AWAY FROM THE RIOT.

The more time you spend in the midst of a riot, the greater your chance of being injured or killed. That said, in most circumstances it's better to move out of a riot slowly. If you run, you will draw attention to yourself, so it's usually best to walk. It is dangerous to stand out in a crowd. Move with the crowd at the same pace, so go with the flow until you are able to escape into a doorway or up a side street or alley. It may also be advantageous to stay with the crowd until you are certain you can safely escape because it will help you remain inconspicuous and improve your odds of survival if shots are fired.

THINK OF CROWD MOVEMENT

like currents in the ocean. In a large riot, the crowd in the middle will be moving faster than the people on the perimeters. Thus, if you find yourself in the middle, you should not try to move in a different direction, but follow the flow and slowly make your way to the outside. This requires patience in order to work properly. Never move against the flow of a crowd, even if a stampede begins - this is how many people are seriously injured in peaceful crowds.

IF YOU GET CAUGHT UP IN A STAMPEDE, try to move in a diagonal direction, with the flow, towards the edges of the stampede. Avoid falling to the ground under any circumstances.

AVOID MAJOR ROADS.

Major roads, squares, and other high traffic areas are likely to be crowded with rioters. If possible, stick to less-traveled side streets to avoid the mobs.

TRAVEL AT NIGHT

If you can't avoid to travel, do it preferably on moonless or overcast (cloudy) nights. Don't walk across big, open or well lit places.

AVOID PUBLIC TRANSPORTATION.

Buses, subways, and trains will likely be out of service, and stations and depots will probably be packed with people. Even if you succeed in getting on a train or bus, rioters may stop it. Subway stations are particularly bad places to be, both because they are generally difficult to escape and because riot control agents (tear gas for example) are generally heavier than air and may drift down into subway stations and accumulate there.

DON'T STOP YOUR CAR.

If you're lucky enough to have a car that you can drive away from the riot, drive quickly and try not to stop for anything until you've reached someplace you know is safe. Drive through or around crowds that block your escape route at a moderate speed. If you honk your horn and drive by carefully they should get out of the way. Keep the car doors locked and the windows rolled up.

Driving towards Police lines can be interpreted by the Police as a preparation to use the car as a weapon against them. Police are trained and prepared to protect themselves against deadly threats meaning that you may be shot at if they think you are going to run them down with a car. Wait for the police to signal you to approach before doing so.

Activist may perceive your cars as a threat as there have been numerous cases of irate non-participants running down protesters. Any pushing through the crowd should be done with the demeanor of patience, aggression may lead to an attempt to disable your car before it is used as a weapon.

GET INSIDE AND STAY INSIDE.

Typically riots occur in the streets or elsewhere outside. Being inside, especially in a large, sturdy structure, can be your best protection to weather the storm such as a basement or an interior doorway to hide from the mob. Keep doors and windows locked, avoid watching the riot from windows or balconies, and try to move to inside rooms, where the danger of being hit by stones or bullets is minimized. Try to find at least two possible exits in case you need to evacuate the building in a hurry. Try to contact police or your country's consulate to let them know where you are, and be on the lookout for signs of fire. If the building is set on fire get out quickly. If rioters are targeting the building and gain entry, try to sneak out or hide.

YOUR SAFETY WHEN CONFRONTATIONS ARE UNAVOIDABLE

TEAR GAS

- Check the wind and move against the wind.
- Spread information about where to go amongst the protestors on the streets.
- Never go out without masks - even the paper masks handed out at doctor's offices or masks used to cover nose and mouth when gardening will provide some protection.
- Wear synthetic fibers at best (Ex. Nylon, Acrylic, Polyester). Tear gas will not stay on clothing made of these.
- Fabric doused with vinegar will help neutralize tear gas.
- If you have some, take physiological serum (saline solution - contact solution, available at most pharmacies) with you (rinse eyes with it, it will wash them without burning). If you cannot find any saline solution, flush your eyes VERY WELL with clean cold water. Thoroughly rinse off any areas of exposed skin as well.
- Diving masks hold off a lot.

RIOT COPS AND RUBBER BULLETS

- Use trash can lids as shields to protect yourself
- If you can use skiing, motorcycle or motocross equipment to soften the impact of rubber bullets and police clubs
- If you don't have anything like this, use adult diapers and plastic box lids to protect genitals and chest.

- Don't wear anything too heavy or too uncomfortable, because your running speed in light equipment is your key advantage against heavy equipped riot cops.
- Riot cops usually wear facial protection, like gas masks etc. if a fight is inevitable, use spray paint to hinder their sight, so you can escape.

LIVE AMMUNITIONS

- In general the final stage of defense for a government is to use live ammunition against its citizens. If it is used the regime is nearing its end.
- Normally it is not used to kill, but to injure people. Because in a crowd of 100 protesters, one dead leaves 99 operational. One injured occupies at least 20 of them, and the cries of the injured will strike terror in the hearts of the others. Their morale will suffer and they become easier to subdue.

- If someone is injured assign two or three people to transport him out of immediate danger.
- Get him or her to an ambulance, medical personnel or the nearest person with a first aid kit.
- Always talk to the injured person: Tell them that you will see to it that they'll get fixed up. Under any circumstances don't do anything that will lead them to panic i.e. crying, yelling etc. This will avoid unwanted attention by enemy forces, and keep the morale up.

- Good treatment of the injured will motivate more protesters to stay and fight.
- In case life ammo is used to kill, GET OUT OF THERE.
- Retreat by using cars, cellar entrances, garden walls, anything you can use as cover while you escape.

PROTESTING VIOLENT OPPONENTS

"OUT OF CONTROL" PROTEST BEHAVIOUR

CONCEPT

The concept of "Out of Control" is based on a decentralized organisation structure and uncontrolled movements of the crowd, as well as surrounding police lines and then suddenly appear as a crowd, similar to a flashmob. The protest participants try to spread out and reunite at a different places to try to hide the borders between protesters in an environment with this behaviour.

TARGET

A close protest can be controlled and steered quite easy by the police. This concept tries to make the analysis of a protest and its flow difficult for the police.

Black Blocking: The Black Block does not need to be affiliated with any group or ideology, it is simply a tactic, and it WORKS. This is both a defense and offensive tactic.

SIMILAR CLOTHING

- Makes it harder to identify individuals
- Makes the mob appear larger than it really is
- Protects identity ('Guy Fawkes' mask popularized by "V for Vendetta")

MASKS

Protect identity. -- If the regime stays in power and your face is recognised during a protest, you can expect repression, imprisonment or even death. Keep your identity hidden when in public! Sunglasses and a scarf over your nose and mouth is a simple means of hiding your identity; if you manage to get hold of mask, then use it. Ensure that you cover any particularly identifying features (e.g. tattoos, scars, birthmarks). If possible, bring extra masks for people who don't have one. Protect yourselves against tear gas inhalation/irritation. Add water or vinegar to help with skin irritations caused by tear gas exposure; pour some physiological serum (saline solution) in the eyes to wash them.

TACTICS

Whether advancing or retreating pull debris (trash cans, dumpsters, burning tires/cars, etc.) behind your path. This will slow down APCs, Police, allowing you (being on foot) to maintain mobility. If there are vehicles nearby, usually two or three people can push a normal-sized car easily - you will only need one person to steer it and block off narrow alleys or parts of roads with it.

DON'T GET TRAPPED

If you hear someone saying you are going to get boxed in repeat the message down the line to other protesters.

Listen to where the observation/basement teams tell you to go and go to exactly where they tell you to go. And when they tell you to get out of there, leave the area immediately.

Their job is to prevent you from entering situations/areas that could get you trapped and subsequently in jail or worse!

BE SMART: BE CAREFUL

There is safety in numbers. Try your best to stay around friends and watch one another's backs at all times.

Avoid getting separated. Use caution when dealing with and speaking to people whom you do not know. In the event that you are separated, stay where you are if it is safe. Once again, ensure that you and your friends have agreed to a meeting-place if separated, and a contact person if you are caught or otherwise unable to leave an area.

People claiming to support your cause, but whom you do not know personally could be infiltrator spies. Avoid revealing your identity to them. Make sure no one other than the communications operator of the team is communicating through the radio channel you are utilizing. Be cautious about using public phones; mobile networks may not always be available so ensure you have a backup method if you are relying on phone networks. It could cause a breach of security if undesirables (police or other authorities) are spying on your conversation.

Have a designated meet up place or two, and a designated time if anyone gets separated from the main group. Use sun up or sundown for an easy meeting time. Do not place your meeting site near well-known landmarks; it's very probable that this is where security forces will look first.

This place should also have a message drop that is concealed (such as a letterbox, hole in a wall, hol-

Obama-nation: “National Socialism” (1939-1945 Germany); power in fewer hands has already before drastically TWICE PROVEN TO BE A TERRIBLE IDEA.

The prophetic "OBAMAGRAM" decoding is CLEAR AND MOST HIGHLY obvious.

Obama Can't Save You unless You prevent Obama from casting more deceptions; which started with his fake/forged Hawaiian birth certificate (see: obamacrimes.com). Otherwise, perhaps, the future is already foretold.

The first decoding literally states Obama (“Oh....bomb-us??”) will at least appear to be taken out in a bomb blast.

The beast system is not loyal to anyone, only the beast system itself, even Obama.

"They", the global criminal aristocracy, will apparently have Obama ass-asinated.

If Obama is not seen live at ground zero just prior to the the detonation (Washington DC?) his pseudo-demise could only be yet another ruse. [A large deep tunnel system exists under DC. The white house has a hidden entrance to an underground tunnel network and secret facility.]

Why a nuke? The incredible decoding states: “A bomb eradicates prank!”

(Letters of “President Barack Obama”): and “Ape bomb! Stark radiance!”

"Stark Radiance" seems to imply nuclear. It appears one of the two decoded Obamagram scripts will be played out.

One simple idea that could jumpstart the end of tyranny forever...

America, please wake up, although it doesn't seem like it on the surface to most of us right now, Our basic human freedoms in 2010 including the basic right of Personal Privacy, such as our personal records now being collected together, & Free Speech are under assault by a long developing criminal system that is currently out-of-control by most of us. Who are We? At one time in America, when one spoke of the government, they thought of their city or country government first, or perhaps their state government. Now when people talk about “the government”, they are usually referring to the federal, “the feds”, or national government. A big problem is that our national government has had its own paper money machine, The Fed, or “Federal Reserve”, making it all powerful over 50 states, since 1913. We, our society, our progeny, became instant debt-slaves since.

Now the federal government thinks it owns your children's minds (The Federal Board of Education). They think “they” own your income (The IRS). And “Homeland Security” thugs really means “Homeland Insecurity” gestapo: as they cast fear on the population, spy on all of us, & prosecute those they wish to frame as terrorists.

The Federal Government has just passed new laws giving the executive office the ability to disable or suspend the entire internet at any time dictator Obama, (Bush III), gives an order. So nothing has “changed”. We have been sold on taking measures for our “safety” while the shackles are being put more on all of us. The existing old corrupt establishment government is constantly increasing warfare against people on our planet. And a murderous government called Zionists who control Israel are planning on using nuclear weapons against the many millions of innocent people of Iran. When are we going to end the establishment's agenda for more wars?

Obama's approval rating is setting new low records at 41% as of June 2010. The public's approval rating of Congress is even less, near 10%. And we are finding out Obama's real name has long been Barry Soetoro and that he was really born in Kenya and is by record still a legal Indonesian Citizen. (See obamacrimes.com for more information for research on the true history of this Fortune 100 puppeted person, this establishment bred imposter, who many hail as “Obama”.) He permits the ongoing genocide in Palestine. He watched the gulf oil leak over 80 + days, to attempt to further tax us on carbon. He lied about taming the federal budget. This one imposter has lied while campaigning about dissolving the occupations and horrible warfare being continued in Iraq and Afghanistan. He lied about “No new taxes.” He's blatantly lied to us on over a dozen major counts.

Most simply, we have lost our minds to constant entertainment and the corporate media; our forgotten culture of citizen conscience in America. This corrupted system of government has obviously become the #1 power in America and so We The People have become #2. We need to start speaking regularly to our neighbors again about wars, and we need to host and meet at conventions at the local, state, and again national levels about real issues; not the untrustworthy national political theater, not daily sports, tv, hollywood, singing competitions, or even sentimental issues just for the time being. This long corrupt current government doesn't prevent but rather feeds off new crises. The Feds were empowered by 911 and every other establishment-contrived inside-job crisis since – and every new problem the feds plainly setup or prolong.

We need to heed the warnings of those such as Thomas Jefferson, Andrew Jackson, and John F. Kennedy, and many others. They publicly gave us advice about defending our liberties from those who control “the planet's corporation” from behind the scenes: namely secretive big global bankers such as the House of Rothschild, corporate tycoons and CEOs, the military industrial complex top brass, and other “elites”; who are collectively wishing for and conspiring to create a planetary government modeled as a planetary prison; in an attempt to seize the people of the world through mass murder, and now fully enabled under their fully established power. Instead we need to turn away from each other and seize them! Are We The People going to accept their open tyranny? Or will we re-awaken and re-invigorate our public conscience by re-starting vital communication with all our neighbors; to at least get on the same page about one simple idea that we can subsequently unify more around? Let's change the name of our country by one word; an obvious new beginning. It starts with words.

The idea can simply start with the majority of us agreeing to simply rename the United States of America into the Independent States of America, so the USA has now become the ISA; a visible difference. The next step would be for the individual independent & freshly reconstituted states to establish their own Bill of Rights and equally important independent state currencies and also one most important national law that will end the national government's ability to borrow fiat or printed money from the world's criminal private central banks.

So email this and utilize your home printer to deliver this notice to our fellow citizens. Attach this to an email and forward it to all your contacts without any discrimination. We need reminder that Independence Day is not just beer and fireworks. The day is set aside to think of the principles of freedom, to start communicating at a time of recognition of the loss of liberty, and that time is now, by the time the fireworks ignite on July 4th.

Declaration of We The People for the Establishment of :::
The Independent States of America
(I.S.A.)

We The People can make a dramatically positive difference together. We need a common theme. We can all live in a better and happier world. We need to do something big to mark the real change.

Right now, we are United as 1939 Eastern Germany: one entire country, one currency, one financed puppet commander, and many wars. We are no longer 50 independent states. We are now much like the "unsinkable" Titanic, crashing into icebergs (other cultures) and taking on more and more water (debt). Our country has been sinking; slowly and dramatically. The elite class, who work collectively as one mind, wants another world war for the poor to suffer and die in. Are we just going to take orders, get suited up as with one uniform, to kill more? Is it brave to bomb other people? Isn't there a more peaceful way to be?

Yet the seemingly forgotten 10th amendment to the Constitution grants each of our 50 states independence from central control. But the out of control central government is now creeping into our own homes. It started long ago with cancer causing fluoride put into our water. Are we each free & independent? Have we now just become penned-up slaves? Are we meek or are we brave? Are we just the home of the slaves?

Together we can remove the old corrupt global establishment that en-debts and controls the United States of America. We can definitely restore sanity, peace, balance, prosperity, & all beneficial human freedoms.

All we have to do to create a solid foundation for real positive change (not chump change) is agree to do one thing together, or at least most of us. That is, we wish to establish a new government by and for We The People in the eyes of Creation. We need immediate volunteers. The best chance of this is sharing this idea and printout, back and forth, everywhere, for the Establishment of the "Independent States of America" or I.S.A. You can be the "I" in I.S.A.; a slight change of wording, but a big, real and tangible difference. We can establish a benevolent system; perhaps one that provides property to new citizens, when they turn 18.

Together, We can overcome a lying out-of-control parasitic criminally corrupt government. If every soldier joins us, then we don't even need to get our guns out to expunge today's class of corrupted politicians, in order to get them completely out of the way. Not centralized power, but 50 good short-term governors for the 50 independent states, elected by the people of each state. 50 currencies and 50 constitutions, for the protection of minority rights everywhere; as defined by the full voting electorate of each of the 50 states.

USA can easily be made into ISA. No more national war mongering state Offenses, just a strong set of 50 Independent State Defenses. A beneficial system; perhaps one that provides a home for every new family.

"I" agree to the establishment of the Independent States of America, in order to fully replace the corporate controlled, horribly corrupted, war mongering centralized power of Washington DC; we declare 50 states.

Just get two others to sign before framing your statement and pass around many copies; it is the duty of every free and independent person to promote freedom. If this quickly becomes a fad; We will convene for real positive change. There is no website behind this; nor any particular people. It is free to say "Yes!".

This people's petition is perfect for email attachment.

Article by Paul Joseph Watson, Infowars.com, January 28, 2011

Zbigniew Brzezinski's much feared "global political awakening" is in full swing. Revolts in Egypt, Yemen, Tunisia and other countries represent a truly monumental worldwide rallying cry for freedom that threatens to immeasurably damage the agenda for one world government, but only if the successful revolutionaries can prevent themselves from being co-opted by a paranoid and desperate global elite.

During a Council on Foreign Relations speech in Montreal last year, co-founder with David Rockefeller of the Trilateral Commission and regular Bilderberg attendee Zbigniew Brzezinski warned of a "global political awakening," mainly comprising of younger people in developing states, that threatened to topple the existing international order.

Reading the full extent of Brzezinski's words in light of the global revolts that we now see spreading like wildfire across the planet provides an astounding insight into how crucially important the outcome of this phase of modern history will be to the future geopolitical course of the world, and in turn the survival and growth of human freedom in general.

"For the first time in human history almost all of humanity is politically activated, politically conscious and politically interactive... The resulting global political activism is generating a surge in the quest for personal dignity, cultural respect and economic opportunity in a world painfully scarred by memories of centuries-long alien colonial or imperial domination... The worldwide yearning for human dignity is the central challenge inherent in the phenomenon of global political awakening... That awakening is socially massive and politically radicalizing... The nearly universal access to radio, television and increasingly the Internet is creating a community of shared perceptions and envy that can be galvanized and channeled by demagogic political or religious passions. These energies transcend sovereign borders and pose a challenge both to existing states as well as to the existing global hierarchy, on top of which America still perches...

The youth of the Third World are particularly restless and resentful. The demographic revolution they embody is thus a political time-bomb, as well... Their potential revolutionary spearhead is likely to emerge from among the scores of millions of students concentrated in the often intellectually dubious "tertiary level" educational institutions of developing countries. Depending on the definition of the tertiary educational level, there are currently worldwide between 80 and 130 million "college" students. Typically originating from the socially insecure lower middle class and inflamed by a sense of social outrage, these millions of students are revolutionaries-in-waiting, already semi-mobilized in large congregations, connected by the Internet and pre-positioned for a replay on a larger scale of what transpired years earlier in Mexico City or in Tiananmen Square. Their physical energy and emotional frustration is just waiting to be triggered by a cause, or a faith, or a hatred...

[The] major world powers, new and old, also face a novel reality: while the lethality of their military might is greater than ever, their capacity to impose control over the politically awakened masses of the world is at a historic low. To put it bluntly: in earlier times, it was easier to control one million people than to physically kill one million people; today, it is infinitely easier to kill one million people than to control one million people. "

- Zbigniew Brzezinski (Public Liar, Globalist, and mega-a-hole)

It is important to stress that Brzezinski was not lauding the onset of this "global political awakening," he was decrying it. As one of the chief architects of the "existing global hierarchy" to which he makes reference, Brzezinski himself is under direct threat, as is the continuing ability of the global elite in general to control world affairs.

Brzezinski laments the fact that the Internet has made it almost impossible for the global elite to control the political environment, to control the thoughts and behavior of one million people, which is precisely why Egypt moved to shut down the world wide web yesterday in a desperate bid to prevent activists from organizing against the state.

{ We must understand that Egypt's revolution was caused by the establishment system, by design, in order to further destabilize the region. Yes, the Egyptian people think they have been taking control by the revolt, but when they are exhausted they will be given another form of dictatorship. They will not be given the freedom they demand, only a ruse. }

We are all heavily influenced by and subsequently products of our current environments; therefore making a fair unilateral judgement impossible and the equation for proper individual judgement jarringly complicated. It is better to Save everyone and build prisons in heaven than for particular classes of environmentally cultured people to be unfairly foresaken from universal salvation. For instance a man unable to feed his children is more tempted to steal or even murder another to be able to provide food for his children. And there exists a vast array of other such examples. There would be more glory to Our Father with more and no fears nor tears in heaven.

This is one man's humble review of the Bible and the ultimate question of Who Should Be Saved? .

~Thank you for asking me Mr. Rexster, and i'm sorry for the long delay in responding. Any if ->you<- tend to agree with this vision, then email or send copies to all your friends, and so on.

Universal People's Statement of Freedom

(Maximum Freedom or Fascist Slavery; it's each individual's decision. Public opinion means everything.)

Lovers of Freedom have continuously struggled against the forces of tyrannical governments for multitudes of centuries in the ever deceptive and animated contest between the spirit of enslavement versus the spirit of liberty. When in the course of world events it becomes clear government has become intentionally deceitful, destructive, and murderous - using any form of falsehood, manipulation of media, or theater as cover for an array of crimes - as well as for the next form of government, it is a matter of self-defense for the people of the nation and the world to throw off a corrupt system of government enslavement; and with expediency set then widely announce another special date, apart from July 4th, that will in the future echo worldly celebrations of the cause of liberty. The people should subsequently convene in large numbers on that date and also through the public global computing system of the time, for a convention of the people. The result of the open convention is to have authored, selected, and begun the implementation of a more protective system of shared rights, law, governance, and justice for the current and future generations; of any nation; for the collective happiness of all.

The laws of a Republic should be written clearly in the form of a constitution. However when once trusted political figures individually or as a whole concert of corruption, or the distribution of wealth or establishment system as a whole, betrays the trust of the citizenry by operating outside of the rules and constraints listed in such a constitution, then the citizens of the broken republic should take the stated recommendations of their previous declaration of independence & constitution, along with methods of self defense, back into their own hands. More than responsibility, it is the most sacred duty of the spirit of liberty and justice for all.

By the year 2008, through a persistent stream of offensive actions, including 9-11-2001, the organization widely known as the "United States Government" has declared itself murderous; while bankrupting the working class of America and instituting fascist rule. It has become evident to multitudes of people of every nation that the current government is allied with a cabal of corrupt international banking, war-mongering, so-called "freemasonic", "illuminati" or "new world order", interests. Therefore the "United States Government" has severely turned away from serving its sacred cause of freedom!

Therefore the "United States Government" has failed and is de-facto illegitimate as of the time of the announcement of this declaration at the start of the new people's convention. Revolution is the only possible cure for fascism; and it has already gone beyond the need for a once independent people to have a fresh start! The people's convention date will be decided by the truth movement.

Consequently, All of its previous authority over the citizenry is thereby removed by this declaration; and All freemasonic governments worldwide should be dissolved entirely by the great many world's people. All existing mob-ridden local governments over the individual and the municipalities should be fully dismantled, re-instituted, and rebooted with a fully transparent, efficient, protective, and accountable system model the people's convention democratically selects. All civil rights & laws should be voted for in a true 1-person-1-vote democratic and transparent form - as we always carry a vital responsibility to together choose what has control over our lives and what would ensure us maximum safety & happiness.

This progressive change of government should be enabled and empowered by the entirety of all national and returning armed forces together with all non-terminated local police and the widespread armed citizenry. No more system tyranny!

As we acknowledge this world-wide published declaration in multitudes, we pledge allegiance to each other. We are firm in our disassociation from the previous "United States Government" or any corrupt power. In unison We proclaim to disallow that organization to silence us, to control the mass media or the internet, to suppress us, to spray chemicals upon or conduct any experiments on us, to detain us, to imprison us, to terrorize nor genocide us, to tax us, to bill us, to create dollars or borrow credit, nor counterfeit paper money, to legislate for us nor to adjudicate any proceedings, to direct our armed forces, to make war, or make agreements in our name, nationally or internationally. We are fully aware of our Creation-given rights; including dissent.

Addendum: Initial action list for the people's convention (recommended date: July 5th, 2011; location: St. Louis, MO)

* Withdrawing our businesses and franchises from federal or state-wide taxation of the "United States Government" and its equally corrupt mother companies, the United Nations, International Monetary Fund, and World Bank.

* Create a new fully accountable system of money and taxation commissioned by the improved freshly-chartered citizen's government to: pay off all national debts, redistribute wealth fairly, fund the new government, and reinvigorate the economy.

* Build a beautiful new national capitol city designed by non-freemasonic architects and constructed by the many hands of the nation within a large, and voted-upon, national forest. A new capitol is essential to mark the change in thinking.

* Close and refurbish Washington DC, converting the former capitol into a city -wide orphanage and school campus for the nation's underprivileged children; dedicated in honor of patriots who lived bravely before us without shame.

* Establish a new passport identification, numbered as chronologically signed, and imprinted inside a new & improved Bill of Rights - to be made available for all listed and future citizen signatories of this declaration of freedom from system tyranny statement; that anyone and everyone around the world is invited to recognize and support together forevermore. (All inmates individually reviewed for possible release.)

* No more will we allow homeless/helpless to be picked up, medically experimented upon, or murdered. Every destitute person should be given an opportunity by the new system to construct a dwelling and share in a community atmosphere.

* An end to the concept of "foreclosures". No more will the system be able to profit by conspiring to set market conditions so that people are unable to afford their family homes. Each house now belongs to the family, not to a bank.

* Project Fresh Start – Organic Home Gardening Incentive Program, using a portion of elite reclaimed wealth, to finally solve world hunger. We should each also be motivated to erect personal greenhouses and maintain private gardens year-round. ~~~

Democracy arises out of the notion that those who are equal in any respect are equal in all respects; because men are equally free, they claim to be absolutely equal. Republics decline into democracies and democracies degenerate into despotisms. - Aristotle

If the world knew how to use freedom without abusing it, tyranny would not exist. - Tehyi Hsieh

The modern banking system manufactures money out of nothing. The process is perhaps the most astounding piece of sleight of hand that was ever invented. Banking was conceived in inequity and born in sin... Bankers own the earth. Take it away from them but leave them the power to create money, and, with a flick of a pen, they will create enough money to buy it back again... Take this great power away from them, or if you want to continue to be the slaves of bankers and pay the cost of your own slavery, then let bankers continue to create money and control credit. - Sir Joseph Stamp, former president of the Bank of England

Yes, we did produce a near perfect Republic. But will they keep it, or will they, in the enjoyment of plenty, lose the memory of freedom? Material abundance without character is the surest way to destruction. - Thomas Jefferson ~~~ To me the sole hope of human salvation lies in teaching. - George Bernard Shaw ~~~ The empires of the future are the empires of the mind. - Winston Churchill ~ "I have unwittingly destroyed my country." - Woodrow Wilson {After signing the Federal Reserve Act in 1913} ~~~ The basic idea behind teaching is to teach people what they need to know. - Carl Rogers ~~~ Awaken people's curiosity. It is enough to open minds, do not overload them. Put there just a spark. - Anatole France ~~~ Education...beyond all other devices of human origin, is a great equalizer of conditions of men -- the balance wheel of the social machinery... It does better than to disarm the poor of their hostility toward the rich; it prevents being poor. - Horace Mann ~~~ There is no education like adversity. - Benjamin Disraeli ~~~ It is the supreme art of the teacher to awaken joy [life, liberty, happiness...] in creative expression and knowledge. - Albert Einstein ~~~ We think of the effective teachers we have had over the years with a sense of recognition, but those who have touched our humanity we remember with a deep sense of gratitude. - Anonymous student

$$$ We need to replace the self-destructive US dollar, now propped up as the world's reserve base currency. The current elite class have ideas for that already: the Amero, The Globo, the SDR, and the Bancor. However, we need to incarcerate the elite and reclaim the wealth they have stolen from the world through their big currency schemes of the past. A new world reserve currency would need a new name & new publicly transparent oversight and frequent audits by the people of the world. Elected boards should be established, and no board member should at any time profit excessively from their elected duty. Here is an idea for a name of a new global currency, the Dillar. For two reasons, the next currency will have a digital overlay to guard against counterfeiting, yet retaining privacy of use, so a digital dollar could be shortened to the Dillar. Also, since, We, the people of the world, are currently in a pickle, and the Dill is a name of a pickle, for humor's sake, the "Dillar" to replace the "Dollar" works too and would be the easiest transition. A fresh start for example would be this simple rule: everyone who had turned 18 years old, or does on their birthday, will receive D100,000 Dillars to start their new life and career. That would have the effect of distributing the wealth of the world evenly and fairly. They could choose to invest it in themselves via education, or into stocks in a new market, or into their own business, or assets such as their own house, etc. $$$

Soldiers Code

1. I am an American soldier - A protector of the citizenry, sworn to uphold the Constitution of the United States.
2. I will treat others with dignity and respect and expect others to do the same.
3. I will honor my country and my fellow soldiers; those who are not traitors to the Bill of Rights & Constitution.
4. I am proud of my country & its flag. I wish to look back and say that I am proud to have served my fellow citizens.
5. Lastly, no matter what the situation I am in, I will never do anything for pleasure, profit, or personal safety which would disgrace my country, my uniform, my unit, my high school class, and the people of my country.

ESSENTIAL CHECKLISTS

CHECKLIST: COMMUNICATIONS

The phone/address books are of friends and family so that you can look them up after the worst has passed. If phones are not working you may have to travel to their home to check on them.

You will also need equipment to connect to the internet in various ways to let the world know what is happening.

*Keep these items in waterproof containers. Many survival and camping stores sell flat, water tight pouches. If you have a food vacuum sealer, this is another great use for it!
